

Arbiter Officials Association

The Arbiter Officials Association (AOA) is a new offering that combines insurance for officials with our popular officials eligibility tools into a single, low-cost membership.

Membership in the AOA provides the following:

Insurance through American Specialty

See the included insurance data sheet for a full list of coverage and benefits

Online Registration Application

Collect personal information, fees, and consents from both returning and new officials

Online Testing Application

Administer one or more tests for each sport and share results with local associations in real-time

Online Clinics through Brainshark

Easily create online clinics that include PowerPoint slides, voiceover, videos, and more

In-Person Clinic Tracking

Track attendance for required state and local meetings

Eligibility Center

Use registration, testing, clinics, background checks, and more to create the requirements to receive assignments in each sport

Online Portal

Share information with your officials and community from a central location and full content management system

Customer Support

Support for your officials for account troubleshooting, password resets, etc.

Account Management

Dedicated Account Manager for you and your assigners from our Utah-based team

Cost of membership in the AOA is $13 per official per year under a three-year term, or $15 per official per year under a one-year term. Officials are enrolled in the AOA at the time they register with your organization. Membership in the organization resets on July 1 each year.
